Agenda Item: Approval of May 25, 2011 Minutes

Action Taken:

- The YAC unanimously approved the minutes from its May 25, 2011 session.

Agenda Item: Chair's Report

Discussion Summary:

- Mr. Dawson announced and congratulated new chair positions. A round of applause was given by the YAC for the new leaders .
- Mr. Dawson also reminded the YAC of its three simple guidelines being; a)keep the momentum going despite juggling academic and other responsibilities b)keep the work matter prominent and relevant to high school and college students c) to respect and understand that each member brings their unique effort to the table, with various educational backgrounds and strengths.
- UPenn had also contacted Mr. Dawson to ask that the YAC lead a Penn Seminar again. John McGee-the contact person regarding Penn Access cards said there is an approximate 3 yrs until the student I.D cards will double as a SEPTA fare pass. YAC also voted that individual fare payment each way rather than paying double at once at the gate.

Outreach and Communications Subcommittee Report:

- Given Ms. Hwang's absence, Phil Dawson updated the YAC with the state of the art contest. The winners have been chosen and notified and may be invited at the next plenary dinner meeting.

Transit Education Subcommittee Report:

- Scott Dubin reported that there was a lack of response to his email regarding a schedule that suits those who volunteered with the video project best. Marcus McKnight presented a sample video he and Jesse Hunley produced. The response from YAC was appreciative of the proactive initiative but requested that more member involvement be considered for the official video. Emily Shaeffer suggested the video sample be cut into different segments such as a clip on the location of machines.

Service Evaluation:

Agenda Item: General Discussion

Discussion summary:

Gary Thomas notified Nilda and YAC of a hazardous glass pane. Marcus McKnight suggested that the YAC be allowed to "shadow" different SEPTA positions to see how things run and add this knowledge to the committee's understanding of how the system works.
